About Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence

The Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence “The EU and its Citizens” pools the expertise and academic activities of scholars working on European Integration at the Freie Universität Berlin. In doing so, it puts the relationship between the EU and its citizens center-stage addressing one of the major challenges of European integration.

About Reconstituting Democracy in Europe – RECON

RECON is a large-scale research project on “Reconstituting Democracy in the European Union” including 21 partner institutions across Europe (2007–2011). It is an Integrated Project supported by the EC’s Sixth Framework Programme for Research and is coordinated by ARENA – Centre for European Studies at the University of Oslo.
